

AHEPA CHAPTER No. 31

INVITED SPEAKER PRESENTATION

7:30 pm on Tuesday January 25, 2005

Founder's Hall, St. George's Greek Orthodox Church

7701 Bradley Boulevard

Bethesda, MD 20817

301-469-7990

SPEAKER

Professor Dimitrios G. Kousoulas

- ◆ Howard University, Department of Political Science

Professor and Chairman of the Department for over 25 years

- ◆ George Washington University and National War College

Visiting Professor

Professor Kousoulas is the author of more than a dozen books, including his recent book on the Life and Times of Constantine the Great now in its second edition and available on the internet through Amazon.

He writes a bi-weekly column in the National Herald, English edition.

Elected Chairman of the 81st AHEPA National Convention in Phoenix

A Founding Member of St. George Church

Archon, Ecumenical Patriarch, Constantinople

PRESENTATION

We are most pleased to present Professor Kousoulas who will discuss "Religion, Terrorism and Afterlife". He will discuss how the promise of afterlife is used in the exploitation of young fanatical groups. Religious brainwashing is used to recruit the young to kill their enemies by committing suicide bombing in highly populated areas.

Highlights include:

- How did it all start? - The role of the clergy (Mullahs).
- The effect of the religious schools. - Why suicide bombers?
- Urban guerrillas, the Moslem variety.

We welcome all visitors, non members as well as members, to join us in hearing this stimulating presentation by Professor Kousoulas.

As is customary, refreshments will be served after the meeting.