We all know that the ancient Greeks believed that fate is written. Mike Bramos and Steve Panos were teammates for the AHEPA 2008 Basketball Odyssey All-Star team to Greece this summer. They helped lead the AHEPA USA All-Star team to an upset victory against the Greek Junior National Team 75-65, at the Olympic Stadium in Athens.

Bramos who stars for the University of Miami of Ohio and Panos who stars at Weber State will meet again, but this time as opponents in the Coaches vs. Cancer Tournament. The regional tournament will be played at UCLA'S Pauly Pavilion in Los Angeles, California on November 12th, and there is a strong possibility the game will be shown on ESPN2.

Coaches vs. Cancer is a joint effort by the American Cancer Society and the National Association of Basketball Coaches to help win the fight against cancer. Any Hellenes or members of the AHEPA Family in the Los Angeles area should consider attending this worthy college hoop contest.
